

The West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine

Seeking Internal Medicine

A full time tenure track faculty position is immediately available in Internal Medicine. Primary responsibilities include providing pre and post doctoral education and training to WVSOM students, interns & residents, plus all attendant educational activities, which may include physical diagnosis, physician skills and ACLS. It is expected that the applicant will spend 50% of their time providing hospital based care.

This position requires completion of a residency and board certification or board eligibility in Internal Medicine. Ideally, the successful candidate will have experience in clinical teaching. Research is supported and encouraged but not required. The candidate must also be able to be licensed in the state of West Virginia, which requires a rotating osteopathic internship for osteopathic physicians.

Our campus is located in Lewisburg, a picturesque community nestled in the Appalachian Mountain just eight minutes from the famed Greenbrier Resort. Individuals and families are greeted by tree-lined streets and warm welcomes of those seeking a way of life free of urban sprawl and crime. In addition to being named as one of America's Best Small Art Towns, Lewisburg has an array of eclectic restaurants, outdoor activities, antique shops, art galleries and live theater supported by varied local artists and benefactors.
