

INSTITUTIONAL POLICY: E-33

CATEGORY: Education

SUBJECT: Adjunct Faculty Appointments

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 1, 1990

LAST REVISION DATE: December 9, 2006

Qualified physicians, dentists, allied health professionals and other visiting lecturers who have been credentialed by WVSOM will be given an adjunct faculty appointment and will be issued a certificate of recognition. Physicians, dentists and allied health professionals may hold the title Clinical Professor, Clinical Associate Professor, Clinical Assistant Professor, or Clinical Instructor. Basic Science faculty may hold the title, Adjunct Professor, Adjunct Associate Professor, Adjunct Assistant Professor, or Adjunct Instructor.

Credentialing Requirements include:

1. A current curriculum vitae.
2. A current license to practice (when applicable).
3. A current DEA certificate (when applicable).
4. Recommendation by the appropriate associate dean.

Adjunct faculty appointments shall be for no longer than a two (2) year period, however are renewable for like periods based on continued participation.

Adjunct faculty do not hold voting privileges on matters pertaining to faculty governance nor can they serve on faculty committees.