

The West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine

DIRECTOR OF FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

Reports to: Associate Dean for Assessment and Educational Development. The Director of Faculty Development will design, implement, and evaluate faculty development processes and curricula to support educational initiatives within the broader effort of promoting medical education, educational research, and scholarship.

This is a tenure-track, full-time, 12-month faculty/administrative position (state funded), within the Department of Assessment and Educational Development with faculty appointment.

Specific Job Functions: Create and lead faculty development activities for both pre- and post-doctoral programs, on-campus faculty and off-campus preceptors. Maintain the WVSOM faculty development website. Consult with and support WVSOM's curriculum development. Teach as requested, including co-facilitation of at least one 10-week PBL block each year. Some travel required. Performs other related duties as assigned.

Qualifications: Successful candidate will have an earned doctorate in curriculum design, instructional design, or other education related fields. Experience in medical education preferred.

Application: Qualified applicants should send a cover letter, current resume, and a list of five references and their contact information to include addresses, e-mail, and phone to Leslie Bicksler, Director, Human Resources. Applicants are encouraged to send application packets via e-mail lbicksler@osteo.wvsom.edu. Material that cannot be e-mailed may be sent to Leslie Bicksler, WVSOM, 400 North Lee Street, Lewisburg, WV 24901.

Applications are considered confidential, and references will not be contacted without notifying the applicant. Applications will be accepted until position is filled.