GP-11-1. Authority

W. Va. Code § 18B-1-6

GP-11-2. General

A student who has been dismissed is one with whom the West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine (“WVSOM”) has permanently terminated its association. WVSOM may dismiss a student who fails to show satisfactory academic performance and/or conduct at any time throughout the entire academic program.

GP-11-3. Consideration for Dismissal

A student may be considered for dismissal from WVSOM if any of the following situations occur:

- 3.1 A student's cumulative grade point average is less than 70% at the end of any year.
- 3.2 A student fails one or more courses in one academic year.
- 3.3 A student earns failing grades in a course that was repeated at WVSOM or at an approved outside institution or fails a remedial program.
- 3.4 Failure to maintain conduct appropriate to graduate education (refer to Institutional Policy GP-01). Examples of inappropriate conduct include, but are not limited to:
  - 3.4.1 Cheating, failure to support the Student Honor Code;
  - 3.4.2 Breaching confidentiality;
  - 3.4.3 Public intoxication (drugs or alcohol);
  - 3.4.4 Disruptive behavior in classrooms, laboratories, clinics or hospitals;
  - 3.4.5 Assaulting or threatening administrators, faculty, staff, or fellow students;
  - 3.4.6 Harassment of administrators, faculty, staff or fellow students;
  - 3.4.7 Discrimination, contrary to law or policy, or sexual harassment;
  - 3.4.8 Stealing (e.g., books or test files, drugs, etc.);
  - 3.4.9 Failure to resolve debts at WVSOM; and

- 3.4.10 Failure to follow a directive(s) of administration and/or faculty.
- 3.5 A student fails to cope with the physically taxing work load and/or fails to cope with stresses associated with graduate school.
- 3.6 Failure to fulfill the requirements for graduation within a two-year period, inclusive of all time spent on any leave(s) of absence.
