DIVE DEEP INTO CME

June 10 - 13  ~  Kingston Plantation  •  Myrtle Beach, S.C.

The WVSOM Summer Seminar will offer 20 Category 1-A AOA credit hours. An Outcome Measure Survey will be emailed following the seminar. By completing the survey, participants will receive up to two additional CME credit hours.

WSOM is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to provide osteopathic continuing medical education for physicians.

WSOM designates this program for a maximum of 22 AOA Category 1-A credits and will report CME and specialty credits commensurate with the extent of the physician’s participation in this activity.

SCHEDULE

Breakfast and registration are available from 6:30 – 7 a.m. each morning.

The continuing medical education workshops and lectures begin at 7 a.m. and run until noon each day.

Lectures will take place in Brighton Tower.

A complete schedule of topics and speakers will be distributed and posted to the WVSOM Alumni Association website in the coming weeks.

SPECIAL EVENTS

A family beach reception will take place for conference attendees and guests:

Wednesday, June 10
6 – 7:30 p.m.

Plantation Villas:
WSOM has blocked one-, two- and three-bedroom lakeside villas for conference attendees. These units are completely furnished, including fully equipped kitchens, all linens and washers and dryers.

Brighton Tower:
WSOM has blocked guest rooms and condos in Brighton Tower.

Embassy Suites Hotel:
Hotel rooms are also available in the resort’s oceanfront Embassy Suites Hotel. Regular seasonal rates will apply to any units not in the block.

For best selection, make your reservations early. The block fills quickly, and Kingston Plantation expects to be at full capacity that week.

To qualify for the conference rate, reservations must be made by May 8, 2020. To make reservations, call 800.876.0010 and use group code: WVO.
