Summary: WVSOM is seeking physicians to join our Family Medicine program. These can be tenure- or non-tenure track faculty positions. Candidates should be residency trained and be Board Certified or eligible in Family Practice. Ideally the successful candidate will have clinical and teaching experience. The successful candidate must be able to be licensed to practice medicine in the State of West Virginia.

Responsibilities: The percentage of academic responsibility may vary depending upon the candidate and could range from 100% Academic to 100% Clinical. Academic duties include training medical students, interns and residents with the primary responsibility being instruction of first and second year medical students in the classroom, lab and/or in the clinic. Academic responsibilities may include preparing and delivering lectures, assisting in skills labs, and other small group activities. Research is supported and participation in scholarly activities is expected. If desired, this position could provide an opportunity for a clinical practice, which could also include hospital.

Benefits: Salary and faculty rank will be commensurate with experience and includes an excellent benefits package including medical malpractice insurance, educational loan reimbursement and relocation expenses. Our ambulatory clinic is a state-of-the-art facility serving communities in the greater Greenbrier Valley.

Recognized as A Great College to Work For by the Chronicle of Higher Education, WVSOM is a free-standing medical school nestled in the Allegheny Mountains. Located in "America’s Coolest Small Town" (Budget Magazine 2011), WVSOM is just minutes from the famed Greenbrier® Resort, a Five Diamond hotel and spa and host of the PGA’s annual Greenbrier Classic. WVSOM brings over 40 years of history serving the health and wellness needs of the Greenbrier Valley, the state of West Virginia and beyond. The school’s small-town, rural community cherishes its connection with the college and our students are actively engaged in service outreach and support for over 40 non-profit organizations in this area. This one-of-a-kind environment brings together farmers and artists, lumbermen and world-renowned musicians, holistic physicians and thrill-seeking whitewater rafters in a diverse melting pot that is truly unique!
